Many thanks to all who filled the shoeboxes for the Blythwood appeal, we had a total of 15.

FOPS Ball - It was a fantastic night and was enjoyed by all. Special thanks must go to Karen Moody, Liza Mitchard-Harrison and Abi Whitmarsh for all the hard work they put into the evening and all the extra attention to detail.

Just a reminder that it's the Halloween Party tonight at Sinderby Hall from 5 - 7pm - £4.00 entry on the door. Also don't forget it's the Bonfire Party at Pickhill from 5.30pm to 7.30pm on Sunday 2nd November - hope to see you all there!

Today was 'Wear your Pyjamas for Osmond' day. We were all very cosy and raised a tremendous amount of £98 (& counting!).

We have some new Oxford School Dictionaries for sale at a bargain price of £5.00 (retailing on Amazon & Waterstones at over £6.00).

Congratulations to Rose Jefferson who got through to the final of the Cross Country Competition.

Class 1

After the half term holiday we will be learning...

Literacy: ...to write bonfire poems

Numeracy: ...to multiply and divide

Pickhill Praise this Sunday

We are re-launching Pickhill Praise as a service particularly involving children. There will be a competition each time - This week's competition is a picture of a bible story. Perhaps you would like to be involved in church but find every week too much commitment. Why not come to this service once a month?
Reverend Ruth

Class 2

English: We will be learning interesting facts about China.

Science: We have a new topic of Magnets and Springs.

Maths: 'Mop up Maths'. We are catching up on all those tricky objectives we need to practice.

French: We have a new topic of Colour.

Topic: We are making a start on the DT project which is making an illuminated shoe box house. (This will take all of next half term).
